

Wakashan winter meeting 1

27 December 2022

The first Wakashan winter meeting will happen via Zoom on 27 December 2022. This meeting is intended as a semiformal gathering to share work and ideas on the documentation and revitalization of Wakashan languages, namely Makah, Ditidaht-Pacheedaht, Nuuchahnulth, Kwakwala, Wuikala, Heiltsuk, and Haisla.

The times in the following program are given both in Victoria (Pacific) time, and in Zurich (Central European) time. The Organizers of the meeting are David Inman, Della Preston, and Adam Werle. For the Zoom link, please contact Della.

Program

Victoria	Session 1, chaired by David Inman	Zurich
0800–0830	Adam Werle • Introduction	1700–1730
0830–0900	Henry Kammler • The Words of Life evangelical recordings (Global Recordings Network) as linguistic and ethnographic sources for Wakashan	1730–1800
0900–0930	Katie Sardinha and Henry Davis • A teaching grammar of argument structure in Kwak’wala	1800–1830
	break
	Session 2, chaired by Adam Werle
1000–1030	Dana Roberts and Joshua Shaw • Wakashan stories	1900–1930
1030–1100	David Inman • Wakashan plural systems	1930–2000
1100–1130	Adam Werle • A critical assessment of some published Westcoast (South Wakashan) data	2000–2030
1130–1300	Debrief and planning	2030–2200